Mission Statement: The mission of the Mediapolis Public Library is to provide places and services to connect the community to the world and to each other.